

34. Business Intelligence refers to the technologies, processes and tools used to collect, analyze, visualize and present business data so that the organizations can make informed decisions.

1e. Power BI a business analyst tool from Microsoft that enables users to connect to multiple data sources create interactive dashboards and generate reports. Helps business to view revenue by region, track monthly sales performance, identify top performing products and monitor KPIs.

Tableau

A leading data visualization and Business Intelligence platform known for its powerful and user friendly visual analytics capabilities.

A retail company can use this tool to analyze customer purchasing patterns, identify seasonal sale trends, compare store performance and forecast future demands.